

BBC Learning English

Express English

Express yourself! Every week we ask you a different question. Hear what people in London say, then join the conversation! This week: Home

What does home mean to you?

Here's what people in London said:

It means home cooking... er... getting my clothes washed, warmth, comfort, all those sort of things.

Home is where my parents live.

What about you – are you living at home?

Not living at home. I'm living in a shared flat, I'm living with one of my mates from back home and I'm from France.

And when you hear the word home, what does the word home mean to you?

Harmony, being very relaxed. Just a peaceful place, it's cool.

Now tell us what you think!

http://www.bbc.co.uk/worldservice/learningenglish/general/expressenglish/2011/10/111024_ee_home_page.shtml